In 2021, Map the System had 56 international educational institutions taking part, with 38 finalist teams attending the Global Final in June.

2nd place

Second place went to the National University of Singapore team, awarded the £3,000 prize plus the E1,000 Audience Choice Award for their examination of how Singapore's meritocratic educational system unintentionally exacerbates social inequality?
